What is the next step?

Follow the website links and contact the suppliers. Notice that you must strictly follow the process explained in Part 2: Supplier Research of the 4-Part Import Manual (Link).

Without following the process in Part 2, you should not expect to get a reply from the listed suppliers, or expect further cooperation to create your product.

Are you not satisfied with this report?

If this is not the result you expect, please contact us on order@chinaimportal.com. Please notice that this report is only a complement to the 4-Part Import Manual, and will not provide any solutions on it's own.

FAQ

When should I order a Sourcing Report?

By ordering a Sourcing Report, we will get to work and create a shortlist of suppliers that we deem to be suitable for your products.

The supplier selection is based on publicly available company information. However, we don't offer any guarantee as to whether they will accept your order.

What kind of information is provided in the Sourcing Report?

- Company name
- Product scope
- Registered capital
- Website

How many suppliers are listed in the report?

Normally 4 to 6 suppliers.

How long does it take to process the order?

3 working days, which excludes weekends and holidays.

Do you contact the supplier and/or negotiate our order?

No, we don't contact any of the suppliers. We make the selection based on the assessment process explained in the 4-Part Import Manual.

Once delivered, what should I do with the report?

You shall continue the process by contacting the suppliers, and requesting quotations. You must follow the process in the 4-Part Import Manual.

How many Sourcing Report Credits do I have?

- Core: None
- Startup: 1
- Business: 3

Note: each credit gives you right to a sourcing report on a product of your choice.
